FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: April 14, 2022

(CPD # 22-14618-OF)

CONCORD, NH – On the evening of April 13, 2022, Concord Police officers were sent to the area of Pine Street in Concord in response to a caller reporting that there was a subject armed with a firearm, threatening to harm himself.

Officers arrived, established a perimeter and evacuated the building. Officers were able to de-escalate the situation and the man with the gun was disarmed without injury. He was subsequently transported to Concord Hospital to be tended to by mental health professionals.

The Concord Police Department would like to thank area residents for their cooperation in this matter, which allowed officers to end this potentially dangerous situation professionally and without physical injury to anyone.
